

SP116 | Pulse

100% polyester. A short-sleeve technical T-shirt designed to provide maximum comfort and a natural feel during sports activities. The waffle interlock fabric with a honeycomb weave promotes breathability and quick-drying, while the contoured underarm panels help enhance the garment's durability. The dynamic lines create a slim, contemporary fit, complemented by an internal sweatband. Fabric Weight 135 (g/m2)
